Dear [REDACTED],

District Judge Rebecca Brett Nightingale has served the public on our District Court the last eight years and consistently embodies the qualities that we deserve in a judge. Those qualities-integrity, knowledge, experience, and commitment coupled with an appropriate judicial temperament are the reasons that we list our names in support of her current campaign for re-election. If you are not listed below, the campaign steering committee urges you to join with us in support of our committee's efforts to ensure that Judge Nightingale is once again re-elected to serve as a District Court Judge.

Judge Nightingale manages her dockets with the highest degree of fairness and competency. She won election to the bench eight years ago, and was re-elected without opposition four years ago after demonstrating a natural aptitude for the bench. While managing criminal dockets she served as Chief Judge of the Court's Criminal Division. Since moving to the Court's Civil Division, Judge Nightingale continues to earn the admiration of a broad cross section of lawyers for the dedication, preparation and fair-mindedness that she brings to her docket.

Off the bench, Judge Nightingale distinguishes herself in various organizations that reflect her deep commitment to our judicial system. Exemplifying that dedication was Judge Nightingale's service as President of the Hudson Hall Wheaton Chapter of Inns of Court.

Rebecca and her husband, Steve, are the proud parents of Sam and Rachel. They are active members of Kirk of the Hills in Tulsa.
